December 2018

Dear All,

As Christmas fast approaching, the elves are on the shelves, we thought we had better give you a reminder of those important Christmas dates and times.

We will put a list on the Parents Noticeboard where you can sign up for Party Food to ensure we do not get too much of one thing!

I would like to say a MASSIVE thank you to Paul Spencer, Annie Parry, Nicola Jackson of FOPP for all their hard work and Mrs Lawrenson and Mr Wilson for clearing cupboards and 'Mr Wilson's bedroom'. Thank you for your determination to get our hall and classroom cleared of all the clutter so we can open the doors for the first time in a decade to make way for us all to enjoy a Christmas dinner and a sing song on the 19th December! Hoorah! Thank you!!! If anyone has a favourite Christmas CD bring it with you!

Thank you everyone for your generous giving over the past few Mufti Days. Please do not

The Greatest Snowman

We have not had clubs on this half-term because the children spent time writing the Christmas play. We gathered all the ideas from Key Stage 2 and then voted for the ideas we liked best. Then Esme, Faye and Maggie stayed after school and wrote the play together. They even wrote the song lyrics.

We then held auditions, ('Nativity' style) and the children were given forget it is Pinfold Christmas Fair this Saturday 8th December. Doors open

A message from our PGCE student:

Hi parents. My name is Dave Eastwood, I'm a mature student at Edge Hill university. I am currently enjoying my phase 1 Primary PGCE placement with your children at Pinfold. I live locally, am married, and have 5 children; currently being educated in Sefton & West Lancs. I've worked within the travel industry for over 20 years (utilising my specialist marketing degree) and decided upon a significant career change earlier this year. I have a passion for geography, history, music and sport and feel privileged to be working with
